

HOLROYD COMMUNITY TOGETHER

HCTogether joins local artists, musicians, writers, performing arts and dance groups to bring performances in a virtual form.

Share with us recorded footage celebrating the work your individual community group has developed over the past 12 months and we will showcase this through The Holroyd Community Theatre website every Thursday evening from 6pm.

Programme Themes

If you would like to be part of our weekly HCTogether performances at 6pm every Thursday evening please share your recordings and archive material to kelly@theholroyd.com

Content Deadline - Please submit material for consideration at least one week before the scheduled evening.

Thursday 16th July

The Show Must Go On

Dance - Put on your jazz shoes and join us for an entertaining evening of storytelling through dance performance from your living room.

Thursday 23rd July

A Script in the Hand

A collaborative evening of rehearsed readings from stage plays to sit-coms, screenplays and radio drama.

Thursday 30th July

All the World's a Stage

Shakespeare Evening - Join us to celebrate the work of one of the UK's greatest cultural icons and the most widely read and studied author in the English language.
